1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 6, 8, and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Carlson et al. Carlson et al discloses the claimed invention, including the recited horizontally disposed duct panel 152 having a plurality of holes 162 which are formed along the entire length of the food storage compartment 40. See especially column 6, lines 49-51.

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 3, 5, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Carlson et al. Carlson et al discloses the claimed invention except for the arrangement of the holes. The arrangement of the holes is considered to be a matter of obvious design choice to one of ordinary skill in the art, because no criticality or unexpected results are seen or have been disclosed for the use of the louver holes arranged in a symmetric manner.

6. Claims 15, 16, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Carlson et al in view of Rafalovich et al. Carlson et al discloses the claimed invention except for the refrigeration system being extractable from a chamber. Rafalovich et al teaches a refrigerator having a refrigeration system which is extractable from a chamber 170 in the refrigerator. It would be obvious to modify Carlson et al so that the refrigeration system is extractable from the chamber, in view of Rafalovich et al, for the purpose of making it easy to repair and/or replace the system.

7. Claims 10, 11, and 17-20 are allowed.
8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
